Principal, Michael Maglaras & Company

“At Michael Maglaras & Company, we are pleased to be a Gold Sponsor of Captive.com. In my view, Captive.com is the best source of timely and pertinent information on the state of play with captives, not only in the United States but internationally.

It’s the one industry site we read around here from top to bottom. Speaking as a businessperson, it is also the place where our sponsorship results in our corporate message getting out quickly and efficiently to all our colleagues in the industry and to all those needing our services.”
